

Flights

We will provide recommended flights for all travelers but you can book however you wish. We will not be offering group flights because, as of now, airlines' group flights are more expensive than booking individually.

- We will provide the suggested arrival and departure times but you can book as you wish.
- We will have one transfer from airport to hotel at arrival (and hotel to airport for departure) based on the time the majority are arriving or departing. Separate transfers can be arranged for a fee or you can book your own if you need them.

We will assist you however you decide to book your flight!
